

Curriculum Vitae for Brenda Mudie

Experience and Expertise

Brenda is a Chartered Accountant, and an experienced senior forensic accountant.

Brenda has more than 20 years' experience in the areas of Forensic Accounting and Financial Investigation.

Brenda has provided expert accounting reports for, or in anticipation of, litigation for criminal and civil financial investigations and insolvency matters. During this period, Brenda has given evidence as an expert witness in the Supreme Court of Victoria and the Federal Magistrates Court.

Professional Background

Prior to joining Delbridge Forensic Accounting in 2018, Brenda worked with the Australian Financial Security Authority (AFSA) in bankruptcy estate administration in Townsville and later as an AFSA Regulatory Inspector covering Victoria and Tasmania. This was followed by working as a Senior Forensic Accountant with Victoria Police in Melbourne, investigating financial aspects of criminal offences including work with the fraud squad, e-crime, arson, cold case, homicide and special task force matters. After returning to Townsville, Brenda joined a Chartered Accounting firm, Offermans Partners, as Senior Manager in Forensics and Insolvency, working in that role for five years.

Before specialising in financial investigations and forensics, Brenda worked as a business services accountant for Townsville based Chartered Accounting firm, Maclean Partners.
