

Curriculum Vitae for Kimberley Thomas-Cook

Experience and Expertise

Kimberley Thomas-Cook is the Associate Director of Delbridge Forensic Accounting, having joined the practice in April 2010.

Kimberley has 15 years' experience in the areas of Forensic Accounting and Chartered Accounting. Prior to specialising in Forensic Accounting she primarily dealt with accounts preparation and taxation matters for business services clients with complex structures.

Kimberley has assisted in the preparation of expert reports in a wide range of matters including:

- Valuation of business, equity and superannuation interests in a wide variety of industries including large scale retail and wholesale businesses, engineering and other support services to the mining sector, construction and property development, agriculture and related services and professional practices (architecture, surveying, insurance and loan broking, financial planning and accounting);
- Economic loss reports for commercial disputes including breach of contract, professional negligence and construction disputes;
- Economic loss reports in respect of motor vehicle accident proceedings and other personal injury matters;
- The valuation of royalty streams, including entertainer royalty streams;
- Advice in relation to the taxation consequences of proposed settlements or orders of the Court; and
- The forensic investigation of financial transactions for a variety of litigation matters.

Kimberley has experience in managing the preparation of expert reports for the purposes of Family Law Proceedings in matters ranging from the valuation of a single business interest to the valuation of groups consisting of more than 100 entities.

Kimberley is also frequently engaged in assisting insurance claims officers with economic loss matters.

Professional and Academic Qualifications

Kimberley's background in Chartered Accounting and advising small to medium businesses and individuals gives her an excellent foundation for the analysis of the financial and taxation matters that arise when businesses, superannuation and other assets are valued for the purposes of Family Law and Commercial proceedings. Kimberley is currently undertaking the Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand Forensic Accounting Specialisation Program.

- Member Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand
- Bachelor of Commerce, University of Newcastle
